

A Hero's Journey

Improv Session in English!

Dia dhuit! (Hello!)

We live in a world full of stories, and we know many of them by heart – so why don't we actually use them?! Ireland is well known for its talent in storytelling and its love of sharing ancient tales through centuries.

And you can discover the magic of Irish storytelling on July 9 thanks to our very special guest: Andrea Wodniok all the way from Ireland.

What we have planned

- Warm Welcome in Irish
- Warm up (tell us about your favorite Hollywood movies!)
- "Hollywood & co." Introduction to a Hero's Journey (by Joseph Campbell)
- Creating our own Hero Journey together
- Creative and fun activities to improve language learning
- Storytime at the campfire

Time and place

Tuesday, July 9th, 16:00-18:00
LanguageLab+, Language Center
Building 2, Room 379

No registration required!
Open to all students and staff!

Andrea Wodniok is an applied improv practitioner and solution-focused coach originally from Germany (with a British mother), now living in Ireland.
